

Dear Members

At the weekend I had some tinned strawberries and squirty cream, my cat knocked about a table tennis ball, and I had a wee square of fake grass in my sight line. Did anyone say 'fault'? Of course not, it's Wimbledon fortnight!

Thank you to those who attended the Buck Moon festival. We hope you had a lovely time!

FRIDAY BARBEQUE - Friday 14th July - 4.00pm - 6.00pm

CAMPING @ IMBER

This lovely opportunity is only open to members (if you are taking advantage of the Summer Membership Offer then this is available for you to book too) to set up camp for a couple of nights across the back of the club, near the River Ember (number 5 - picnic area - on this linked MAP). This is a FREE activity but must be booked on Ticket Source BOOK CAMPING There is a maximum of ten tents. You will need to provide everything yourself except for food - the café is open for breakfast (opens 9.00am), lunch and tea (closes 6.00pm). As you are members, you can access the club house, playground, and swimming pool (bookable online). No digging holes here - the toilets are in the football changing rooms. There will be a standpipe for water. No fires please! This is a great opportunity to introduce children to the delights of camping ... and if it rains, or they don't like it, you haven't got a 3-hour car journey to get home!

You don't have to have children to book the camping, adults are welcome too!
