A message from our new Gym Instructor

“My names Charlie and I am the new gym instructor here at Imber court.

My passion is helping people overcome negative perceptions of how they see themselves, including body dysmorphia and anxiety around exercise.

I will be creating a new program structure for all our new customers, so that you don't feel lost or overwhelmed on your fitness journey.

I will be providing a more in-depth explanation on exercise with new advanced gym inductions and I will try my best to reinforce a positive mind set within our gym environment and keep you all motivated.

Kind regards

Charlie “

‘Bring one - Take one’ - If you love reading, would you like to have a supply of books for free? You don't have to pay for a Kindle download or browse around Tesco for a BOGOF on the latest bestsellers, you can just borrow one here! Please take a book on loan from the shelves in the bar if you wish. If you have any paperbacks, you don't want any more, please bring them in and pop them on the bookshelf, where we are trying to get a ‘Bring one - Take one’ scheme going! (If this is not successful then all books will be taken to a charity shop.) Happy Reading!
